

PROFILE VICE-PRESIDENT-ELECT, VICE-PRESIDENT AND PRESIDENT

Responsibilities Vice –President- Elect

- As board member provide governance and strategic vision for the Association.
- Member of the Nominations Committee, which is responsible for presenting a proposal to the Board with candidates for the Board elections.
- Act as the Board’s liaison to the Green Fund.
- Member of the Nominations Committee, which is responsible for proposing to the Board at least one candidate for each position to be filled at the next ballot.
- If both the President and the Vice-President are absent, the Vice-President-Elect shall perform their duties.

Responsibilities Vice –President

- As board member provide governance and strategic vision for the Association.
- Chair of the Nominations Committee, which is responsible for presenting a proposal to the Board with candidates for the Board elections.
- Act as the Board’s liaison to the Board advisors.
- Act as the Board’s liaison to the Awards Committee.
- Participate in the Financial Committee, which prepares and monitors the EAGE investment strategy and reviews the medium term financial plan of the entire organisation.
- Chair of the Regions Committee, which coordinates EAGE activities across the regions and to bring the interests of the regional members to the Board.
- Champion of the EAGE Strategy revision.
- Chair of the Nominations Committee, which is responsible for proposing to the Board at least one candidate for each position to be filled at the next ballot.
- Member of the compensation committee responsible for setting goals and reviewing the performance of the Executive Director.
- The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the latter’s absence.

Responsibilities President

- Chair of the Board meetings, who meet five times per year: the Friday meeting of the annual conference in June (start of President’s tenure), September, December, March and the Sunday meeting of the annual conference in June. An additional meeting may be held when actual developments require so.
- Chair of the association’s annual business meeting, where the annual business report is presented to the membership. This meeting takes place during the annual conference in June.
- Responsible for the overall strategy and governance of the Association.
- Communicate Board policy decisions to the offices through the Executive Director and manage the professional relationship with the Executive Director.
- Chair of the compensation committee responsible for setting goals and reviewing performance of the Executive Director.
- Representative of the Association.

Commitment

- Three-year Board membership: Vice-President-Elect → Vice-President → President.
- Travelling to Board meetings: a Board meeting is normally spread over two days. The meetings are held at the office in Houten (the Netherlands) at the location of an EAGE event.
- Representing the association at the annual conference & exhibition (6 days, June), the annual near surface conference (up to 5 days, September), the biennial Saint Petersburg International Conference & Exhibition (up to 4 days, April).
- Travelling to meetings of sister societies or associated societies of one day to one week in duration.
- Stay connected with the Executive Director and Management Team between Board meetings.
- Involvement in the evaluation of the Executive Director.

Requirements

- EAGE member in good standing and demonstrated active membership.
- Excellent intercultural communication skills.
- A strategic vision.
- Permission to travel.
- Leadership skills.
- Experience on a board of a professional or volunteer organisation is preferred but not required.